

Student Spotlight Anjali

At just six years old, Anjali already has a deep love for music. She began playing the piano at Natomas School of Music with Mr. Lucas three months before her fifth birthday. Her dedication shines through in every note she plays. A homeschooled student, Anjali is a multi-talented young artist who enjoys traveling, painting, gymnastics, dancing, baking, reading, storytelling, swimming, and riding her bicycle.

Her keen eye for order and accuracy is evident in both her artistic pursuits and her approach to the piano. With her passion and discipline, Anjali continues to impress and inspire those around her. Keep up the wonderful work, Anjali!
