Student Spotlight Antonio

Antonio has been taking voice lessons at the Natomas School of Music with Mr. Lucas, since September of 2024. He is inspired by the old Latino Classics, which his mother would play when he was younger. In addition, he also enjoys rock music, love songs, and classics from such greats as Frank Sinatra. Antonio also plays guitar and can't wait to mix the two together and eventually produce his own music. Antonio also enjoys modeling, videographing, and playing video games especially the older ones as it reminds him of his childhood. And last but not least, he loves going to the movies. Teacher Spotlight

Dimitri

Dimitri was born and raised in Palm Springs, CA. He taught himself how to play bass guitar in 9th grade from reading tabs and watching YouTube videos. He then joined his high school marching and symphonic band, Spirit of The Sands, in the percussion section. Spirit of The Sands was invited to tour South Africa in 2010, playing the Lion King score.

His music career has led him to play in multiple bands as a touring and session musician. Dimitri is currently studying for a Bachelor's of Music in Songwriting and Music Production at Berklee College of Music Online.

Dimitri is eager to teach students what he knows, helping shape their love for music.

Artist of the Month - Charlis Puth

Charlie Puth, born Charles Otto Puth Jr., on December 2, 1991, is an American singer, songwriter, and record producer. He gained initial recognition through YouTube, uploading videos of his music. His breakthrough came with the hit song "See You Again," which he co-wrote, co-produced, and performed with Wiz Khalifa. He's also known for his debut single "Marvin Gaye" featuring Meghan Trainor and his debut album Nine Track Mind. Puth is recognized for his perfect pitch and musical talent, including playing piano and composing music. Click here to listen to his collaboration with Megan Trainor "Marvin Gaye"
