January Teacher of the Month

T. Jackson

T. Jackson received her Bachelor's of Music in Music Therapy from the University of the Pacific Conservatory of Music in Stockton, CA in 2007 and her AA Degree in Music from Sierra College in 2003. She became a Board Certified Music Therapist in 2008 and received her certification in Neurologic Music Therapy in 2009. She completed her internship at UC Davis Medical Center in Pediatrics in Sacramento, California. She teaches beginning vocal, guitar, and piano. In November 2014, she formed the T. Jackson Jazz Group performances include private parties, wineries, restaurants, and senior retirement communities. She has participated in Legacy/Renaissance Church Choir, Sacramento Traditional Jazz Society, Celebration Arts Community Choir, and TruVyne Community Choir. She was a vocalist for the University of the Pacific Jazz Big Band, the Oriana Female Choir, the Sierra College and American River Vocal Jazz Ensembles, Sierra College Concert and Chamber Choir, and the Ana G. Vocal Arts Performing Studio.

January Student Spotlight Zachary

Zachary has been taking piano lessons with Mr. Philip for just over four years. He says that Mr. Philip is an amazing teacher because he is funny, cool, and always open to song suggestions for learning. When he's not playing the piano, Zachary enjoys Water Polo, playing video games, creating stop-motion animations, and acting. He also loves listening to electronic and rock music. Artist of the Month Michael Buble

Michael Bubl  is a Canadian-Italian jazz/pop singer, songwriter, and actor known for reviving traditional pop standards with modern flair, selling over 75 million records, winning multiple Grammys and Junos, and captivating audiences with his smooth vocals and engaging stage presence. Michael's grandfather introduced him to big band and swing at an early age. He gained fame after producer David Foster discovered him via a video from a wedding.
