Makeup Days

- The studio is scheduled to be open for 47 lessons in 2026
  - This means: 47 Mondays, 47 Tuesdays, etc.
- In addition to our normally scheduled lesson days, we will be offering a handful of optional makeup days throughout the year.
- Not all teachers will offer makeups on these optional days. You will be able to view timeslots in Opus about a week in advance.
  - Your makeup lessons can be scheduled with any teacher, so feel free to schedule a makeup with a different teacher on a makeup day!
- Makeup days are scheduled for days we would otherwise be closed, so you won't have a lesson unless you schedule a makeup!
  - For example, if your normal recurring lesson falls on a Wednesday, you will not have a lesson on September 3rd unless you schedule a makeup
- No makeups are issued for scheduled holiday closures - we already factor those into our tuition prices.

Snow Days

- We usually average one snow day per year. If we have to close due to inclement weather:
  - We will notify you via email the morning of!
  - We will issue a makeup to your account for the cancelled lesson. All makeups are good for one year from date of issue.

STUDIO CALENDAR

We do our best to ensure that our studio calendar is easy to find!

- Our studio calendar is:
  - Sent out via email at the beginning of each year
  - Linked in our email signature
  - Available on our website
  - Reflected in our business hours on Google
  - Can be emailed upon request
- We will send reminder emails about studio closures as we near them, usually the week or so before.
- You also will receive automated emails reminding you of scheduled lessons.

Make sure to double check our calendar when making your travel plans. Because our students attend schools all over the metro area, our closures may not always line up with school closures!

Ultimately, it is your responsibility to contact the studio if you are going to miss a lesson. We require 24 hours notice in order to issue a makeup lesson to your account.

COMMUNICATIONS

Email

We communicate extensively via email. Here's some tips to make sure you receive our communications:

- Make sure the email address we have on file for you is one you check regularly!
- Older servers like Hotmail and Yahoo can be a bit...fussy. If you have a more modern address (Gmail or later), that's usually a better bet!
  - If you are using Hotmail, make sure to add us to your safe senders list!
  - For Gmail, our emails will sometimes go to the Promotions folder. You can ensure you see our emails by using filters and labels!

Phone/Text

We recommend saving our office line in your contacts! 720.378.3668

- You may receive a message from our extension line occasionally, but your best bet to reach us is always going to be 720.378.3668

Opus 1

- Opus is the scheduling software we use at Neighborhood Music
- In the online portal, you can cancel a lesson, schedule a makeup, update billing information, view your schedule, and more!
- Please see our Parent's Guide to Opus (on our website under About > Student Resources) for more information
- Terms and Conditions: Students will be prompted to accept Terms and Conditions in Opus when they enroll. The system will send out reminder emails, so make sure to take care of that!

Notifications:

To ensure that you receive important notifications about your lesson (including lesson reminders and notification of a cancellation/substitute), make sure your notification settings are up to date in Opus! You can select which email and text notifications you wish to receive.

CANCELLATIONS

Lesson Cancellations

- If you are unable to attend a scheduled lesson, please let us know as soon as possible.
- We require 24 hours notice in order to issue a makeup to your account.
  - Without 24 hours notice, the lesson is considered a no-show and cannot be rescheduled, as we pay our teachers for same-day cancellations in order to protect their income in an industry where income can be inconsistent.

Same-Day Cancellations

We understand that sometimes it isn't possible to give 24-hours notice for cancellations - students wake up sick, cars break down, life happens!

We try to be as flexible as possible while still making sure our teachers are taken care of. Please keep in mind that our teachers are paid per lesson. We pay them for same-day cancellations to help protect their income in an industry where income can be inconsistent.

- If students are feeling well enough, they are welcome to take a virtual lesson at their scheduled time with their scheduled teacher.
- The lesson can be taken by another family member instead
- The lesson time can be used for a meeting between parents/guardians and your teacher

Ultimately, you are paying for a timeslot with your teacher. If you cannot make it for your regular timeslot, we will do our best to help you reschedule, but we cannot guarantee that your teacher will have other availability.

Teacher Absences

A lot of our teachers are professional musicians! This provides a unique perspective for our students, especially those who might want to continue with music as a career. This also means that sometimes our teacher's gig schedules conflict with their lesson schedules. We will always alert you of conflicts with as much notice as possible.

In the event of a teacher absence:

- If a substitute teacher is available at the same time, we will automatically sub your student and let you know. We recommend taking lessons with substitutes when available! It's a good opportunity for students to get a different perspective.

No makeups will be issued if a substitute teacher is available at the same time and for the same instrument as your normal lesson. This allows us to pay our teachers when they are willing to come in to substitute for another teacher's lessons, which means we are more likely to be able to have substitutes available!

If a substitute teacher is not available, we will automatically issue you a makeup.

Virtual Lessons

Sometimes a teacher may offer lessons virtually due to illness or travel. In the event that a teacher offers virtual lessons, no makeups will be issued as the lesson is still being offered.

Subscription Cancellations:

- To cancel your subscription and end your recurring lessons, please email us with the date you'd like to cancel.
  - To avoid being billed for another month's lessons, we must receive notification of cancellation by the 20th of the month.
  - Once your card is charged for the next month's lessons, we cannot issue a refund.
  - Any prepaid lessons remaining are subject to our normal makeup policy.

MAKEUPS

If you are unable to attend your regular lesson, please let us know as soon as you can. If we receive at least 24 hours notice, we will issue a makeup to your account.

- Makeups can be used by anyone in the household for any instrument with any teacher, pending availability
- Makeups are good for one year from the date of issue. We will not extend the expiration date.
- Makeups can be scheduled up to two weeks in advance.
- Makeup lessons cannot be used to prorate tuition. They must be scheduled outside of a student's normal recurring lesson time.

It is the responsibility of the student to reschedule their makeups before they expire. We cannot guarantee that a teacher will have availability for makeups. However, we will do our best to help you get them scheduled!

- We send out a weekly email with open makeup times to every enrolled student.
- Some teachers offer dedicated makeup time after we close for the day (from 8pm-8:30pm on Mondays-Thursdays and from 7pm-8pm on Fridays)
- We offer group makeups on the last Friday of each month from 7pm-8pm.
- You will receive an automated email when your makeups are about to expire.

Ultimately, you are paying for a timeslot with your teacher. If you cannot make it for your regular timeslot, we will do our best to help you reschedule, but we cannot guarantee that your teacher will have other availability.

BILLING

- Recurring lesson tuition is billed at a flat rate every month. Scheduled studio closures (holidays) are already built into the tuition rate. No makeups or credits are issued for those closures.
  - We decide our yearly holiday closures to ensure that no matter what day of the week your lesson is, we'll be open the same number of days! For 2026, we are open for 47 lessons (47 Mondays, 47 Tuesdays, etc.).
- Recurring tuition is billed in advance on the 25th of each month to the card on file.
- A $25 late fee is billed to the account if tuition is not paid by the 10th of the month.
- We do not prorate tuition except for when a student begins their lessons in the middle of the month. The full flat rate will be billed for every month after the first month.
- To cancel your subscription and end your recurring lessons, please email us with the date you'd like to cancel.
  - To avoid being billed for another month's lessons, we must receive notification of cancellation by the 20th of the month.
  - Once your card is charged for the next month's lessons, we cannot issue a refund.
  - Any prepaid lessons remaining are subject to our normal makeup policy.

Sibling Discount: We offer a 10% discount for siblings taking lessons! Your first contract will be full price; additional contracts will receive the discount.

RECITALS

- Neighborhood Music offers performance opportunities in the form of recitals in the spring and the fall!
- The 2026 recital fee is $15 per student. This helps us pay for venue rental and for our teachers' time.
- Our recitals are a mix of beginners and advanced students. This gives our beginner students a chance to see more advanced students in action and it creates a nice varied program for our audiences!
- Students of all ages and abilities are welcome to sign up if they are Recital Ready.
  - A student at Neighborhood is Recital Ready if:
    - i. They feel confident and prepared
    - ii. They can play their piece without assistance
      - Stage fright happens, and it's ok if a student needs a little help day-of! But they should be able to get through the piece largely on their own in lessons and when practicing at home.

If you are interested in recitals, talk to your teachers before signing up. It is a common misconception that just because a student is in lessons, they always have something performance ready - this is rarely the case! If a teacher doesn't know a student wants to perform, they can't help them prepare. Have this conversation early and often!

Registration:

Registration for recitals opens about six weeks before the recital date.

Students should be working on a piece before registration opens!

Registration closes the Wednesday two weeks before the recital date. This allows us time to get programs finalized and printed. Any change requests (different day/time) or timing requests (needing to go earlier/later in the program because of other commitments) must be submitted by the registration closing date in order to be considered. We cannot guarantee that we will be able to accommodate your request, but we will do our best!

Registration is done by Google Form. You must submit a form in order to register or waitlist for the recital.

- The Google form will be sent out at 8am the morning that registration opens
- Students who were waitlisted for the previous recital are given priority registration and will receive the form two days early
- In the form, you will be asked to select your preferred time AND any other time you can make. We do our best to ensure that everyone gets their preferred time, but you may be placed in a secondary choice.
- Final confirmation of recital time will be sent out via email on the Monday after registration closes.

LESSONS WAITLIST

Our scheduling software Opus has a waitlist function!

We can waitlist a student for:

- A new recurring time with their current teacher
- A new recurring time with any teacher
- A new recurring time for their current instrument
- A new recurring time for a new instrument
- A makeup time with their current teacher
- A makeup time with any teacher

To get on the waitlist, please email us with the following information:

- What you are looking for (new recurring time? new teacher? makeup times?)
- What days work best or don't work for your schedule
- The earliest time you could make it to the studio reliably
- The latest time you would want the lesson to start

Our scheduling software will automatically send an email to the address on file to let you know a spot has opened up! In order to make sure you receive these emails, add info@neighborhoodmusicstanley.com to your contacts/safe senders lists and/or create a label for us in Gmail.

The Fine Print

- A waitlist notification does not guarantee a spot. Spots are available first come, first served. Respond quickly for your best chance at getting the spot you want.
- Waitlist entries older than three months will be periodically purged.
- You will receive an automated email if a spot meeting your criteria opens up. Please also feel free to check in with our scheduling staff periodically!
